Welcome New Members and Guests: by President Wyatt Gersley We had no guests tonight.

Review of minutes: by Secretary Bailey Glashan the February minutes are on the club website and attached to the email with the zoom link. Loomis Glashan moved to approve, Gracie Downs seconded the motion, and it was passed by vote.

Correspondence Report: by Secretary Bailey Glashan - We sent a letter to Dr. Harlan from Cotati Large Animal Hospital thanking him for being a guest speaker at our meeting in January. The letter was read out at the meeting.

Treasurer's Report: by Treasurer Michael Sittenauer February: Opening: $2,709.03, Income: $0.00, Expenses: $0.00, Closing: $2,709.03. Gracie Downs moved to approve, Loomis Glashan seconded the motion, and it was passed by vote.

Program: We discussed the roles of each of our club offices in preparation for nominations coming in April.

4-H Council Report: by Assistant CCC Leader Sara Glashan Diego is organizing county wide projects. There will be a Junior Livestock auction this year. We are not sure what it will look like, but it will definitely happen. Allison has put together a nonprofit organization called "Friends of the Sonoma Marin Fair" to raise money to save the fairgrounds.

Healthy Living Officer Report: by officer Gracie Downs. Gracie strongly recommends that you bring your own reusable grocery bags in those stores that allow them.

Community Service Officer Report: by CCC Leader Sara Glashan. We are planning on making letters for the elderly to cheer them up.

Project Report: Market Goats by project members Project members get a goat in March or April. Then they raise them and try to build as much muscle as possible and sell them at the Sonoma County Fair's Junior Livestock Auction. There is still time to join! If you're interested, contact Sara.

Old Business: Cloverdale Citrus Fair: by all participants Michael and Gracie both participated. They sent in virtual entries via photographs and videos. Gracie got first in showmanship and her cavies got Best and Best Opposite Sex of Variety! Michael's Himalayans got Best of Breed, and in Cavy showmanship he got first and in Rabbit showmanship he got second. Congrats! It was better than nothing and they are glad to have been able to participate.

Chicken Que: by John Glashan. It's going to happen this year! It will be a drive through only event at the fairgrounds in Santa Rosa on Sunday May 2nd from 12pm -3 pm. Pre-sale tickets go on sale from march 29 through April 21st. All tickets are pre-sale. Be sure to have people click "sequoia" when they order their tickets online so that we can get credits towards our rebates. With the purchase of a chicken dinner, you will get a hat or a T-shirt. For volunteering, they are going to try to do it so that it is safe for everyone, so we will have more information coming soon. The poster and T-shirt contests are live and are to be judged at a club level tonight and then sent to the county level. Make sure to follow the instructions. Be sure to check your email for important details.

Flocking Committee Report: by Sara Glashan No one came to our meeting so we are going to reschedule and have another one soon.

Birthday Recognition: by Song & Rec Leaders We sang our birthday song to everyone born in March.

New Business: Chicken Que Poster Contest Submissions: by CCC Leaders Wyatt did a really cool poster. We are sending it to the county!

Announcements: Don't forget to check your email and find the calendar of club events on our website at www.sequoia4h.org. Also be sure to send Kelly pictures and articles for the website.

Adjournment: by President Wyatt Gersley at 8:09 p.m. Bailey Glashan moved to approve the motion, Wyatt Engel seconded the motion, and it was passed by vote.

Respectfully submitted,

Bailey Glashan
Secretary
