4-H Council Report: by Assistant CCC Leader Sara Glashan The All Stars are offering Officer Installations. National 4-H Week was last week! Achievement Night is this weekend! Make sure you pre register; it's one o'clock this Saturday and it is a drive in. There are no fall grants from the YAL Foundation this year. Starting soon we can have in person meetings (with special restrictions and guidelines). There is a new program coming up to train youth twelve and older how to help out at the fairgrounds with livestock that are evacuated during fires. Fashion review will be online this year, and likely so will county presentation day.

Healthy Living Officer Report: by officer Gracie Downs This month Gracie wants us to make sure that we stay in contact with our friends and maintain healthy relationships. She also wants us to keep up on our eye health because most of us are spending lots of time on screens lately. We also were encouraged to drink lots and lots of water. Also, make sure to get a flu shot this year and to keep up on our routine doctor visits.

Community Service Officer Report: by officer Elizabeth McClintock This month, paint a pumpkin and drop it off somewhere like an assisted living home to cheer up our elderly and otherwise community members! Liam and his family are donating lots of mini pumpkins to the club, so you can go by Kelly's house to pick them up! When you drop them off, take a picture and send it to Kelly for the website.

Project Presentation: Bikes: by junior teen project leader Michael Sittenauer It's all about learning basic maintenance and repairs for your bikes. We also will learn bike safety and will be going on rides together. Our first meeting will be bike basics, and our second will be a fun ride. There is no age restriction to this project as long as you are a club member.

Old Business: Registration: by Club Leader Kelly Hinde If you haven't registered, you have to go 4-H online and do it. Everyone except for the Sittenauers also needs to pay; all leaders are being paid for by the club. We want to have everything done by the end of the month if possible.

Birthday Recognition: by Song & Rec Leaders We sang our birthday song for October Birthdays.

New Business: Achievement Night: by Sara Glashan Go to the link, sign up, be there or be square! This weekend! Wreath Sales: by Micah Ashley Check you email for all of the flyers! We have twenty days to sell everything, so let's do this! We can only order them for a short time, so if you have questions or need help or are interested in having a physical copy of the catalogue, email or call Micah. Paper Clovers: by Sara Glashan There are still a few days left to make your donations at Tractor Supply. This year our county will be using this money for camp and other county activities. In Person Meetings: by Kelly Hinde We can have a total of ten people including at least two leaders at an in person meeting. "Ten people" includes parents as well. All in person meetings must be outside and everyone must stay six feet apart. Any leader who wants to do this has to attend a special training.

Recreation: Costumes!
