Old Business: Flamingo Flocking Fundraiser: by Sara Glashan We are still doing flocking, but our orders are starting to slow down. We really need to try and promote this project to keep these orders coming. Presentation Day: by Gracie Downs Presentation day went really well this year, especially considering that they had to change it to be a virtual event. Only two people went home with blues; everyone else got gold! Citrus Fair: by Sara Glashan The new dates are April 21st -April 24th.

New Business: Chicken Que Update: by John Glashan Chicken Que will happen, but as of now we are not sure if it will be in person or virtual. They do know, however, that it will be a drive through event at minimum. The CQ committee will meet and an answer should come out soon. It's the first weekend in May so keep the weekend open and be ready to have fun however the event goes! We will need volunteers for either version of the event. You won't have to bake a cake, they are doing pies instead this year. Any and all info about t-shirt or poster contests will come soon. Sonoma Marin Fair Update: by Sara Glashan Sonoma Marin Fair will be a full fair this year. You should know that this year we can only bring in large animals on the Tuesday evening before the fair starts, which means a smaller tack in window. They have opened up the jackpot shows to a couple of other counties which is exciting! Also, they are replacing all of the old wooden pens with new metal pens. They will have a work day where they will ask for our help putting these in, more info forthcoming. Entries open April 18 to May 16. You need your YQCA Certification done, and you need large animal registration paperwork. They will have swine in the old lamb barn and the small animals will all be in the former swine barn. Fair dates are June 22 to June 28. Sonoma County Fair Update: by Sara Glashan The fair will be August 4th through the 14th. They are going to try to get all of the youth shows to be during the first week so that it is done before the school year starts. They changed the pig weights to be from 220-280 pounds. Market goat weights are the same as last year. State Fair: Sara Glashan State Fair is confirmed to happen! Market Goats are July 14-18, Dairy Goats is July 23-27, Swine is July 14-18, Market Rabbits and Poultry go in the 13th, and Junior Rabbits go in the 14th. 4-H Camp Update: by Nicole Gerseley We are almost positive we will be in Hopland instead of Las Posadas this year. Camp 1 will be July 10-16 and Camp 2 will be July 17-23. We will know for sure by next wednesday. Tell everyone that you know to sign up. Loomis explained to us how fun our camp is and all the different things that we do at camp. Its a really cool opportunity for leadership development and a way to meet lots of people who you would otherwise not be able to. Campers have to be five to go with an adult and nine to go by yourself. Staffers are fourteen and have to have gone as a camper for at least one year.

Birthday Recognition: by Song & Rec Leaders We sang our birthday song to everyone born in February.
