Program: Each of our members shared what they were thankful for this year. Our club achievement night will be postponed to either December or January.

4-H Council Report: by Assistant CCC Leader Patricia Sitteneauer There is a poinsettia fundraiser going on for the YAL foundation, and there is a flyer in your mailbox. There is a teen event on December 18th where they will be doing an ugly sweater contest and watching the movie Elf; it is free and for ages nine to up. Liberty is having a beekeeping project if you are interested.

Healthy Living Officer Report: by Healthy Living Officer Ithaka-Rose Serber Ithaka would like for use to start a new Healthy Habits project. You are going to choose one health related thing (sleep, hygiene, diet, whatever you want) and track it over the next month. Take in those normal patterns, and then in a month we will look and see if any changes need to be made.

Community Service Officer Report: by officer Gracie Downs Gracie wants us to think about community service a little bit differently. We should do things for the sake of helping, not for the sake of our own self image. For the holidays, we will be having a toys for tots drive and a canned food drive.

Project Presentations: Rabbits: by ARBA Convention Attendees Convention is a national event for rabbits and covies, and this year it was in Louisville, Kentucky. There were sixteen thousand rabbits there! It was a great event and Michael did lots of youth events, including rabbit royalty where he had to take a huge test, breed ID, and judge different classes of rabbits. He learned a lot and had a lot of fun.

Old Business: Creek Walk: by Gracie Downs Thank you to everyone who went with us to clean up the community and had a lot of fun. Achievement Night: by all attendees It was a fun event and we were really lucky to have it this year. It was in the parking lot of the YAL center and the theme was “Detour to Success.” It went really well and our club got lots of awards. Wreath Sales: by Patricia Sittenauer At this point we are just waiting for wreaths to be delivered to Patricia. Make sure to pay Patricia and you will get them when they arrive.

New Business: Flamingo Flocking Fundraiser: by Bailey and Sara Glashan Our flamingo fundraiser is live! Our first flock will be released on Holiday Party: by Bailey Glashan Our Holiday Party will be Wednesday, December 8 and the theme is Pajamas. We will be doing lots of games, and dinner will be served. We will be doing community service, including a toys for tots drive and a food drive. Toys should be new, and food should be non-perishable and not expired. We are also doing a gift exchange, and gifts should be wrapped and be worth less than twenty dollars. Presentation Day: by Gracie Downs Presentation is a really fun event. If you want to get your stars, you HAVE to do presentations. You can read a book, teach people how to make a cheesecake, or give an informational talk. It helps you learn how to give a presentation and build your public speaking skills. There’s a new presentation day manual so there might be the opportunity to do a presentation on a non-4-H related topic. Entries are due December 10th, so get thinking!

Birthday Recognition: by Song & Rec Leaders We sang our birthday song to everyone born in November.

Announcements: Don’t forget to check your email and find the calendar of club events on our website at www.sequoia4h.org. Also be sure to send Kelly pictures and articles for the website.

Adjournment: by President Wyatt Gerseley at 7:43 p.m. Bailey Glashan moved to approve the motion, Loomis Glashan seconded the motion, and it was passed by vote.

Respectfully submitted,

Bailey Glashan
Secretary
