The CCC Report: Sarah Glashan reviewed the highlights of the last CCC meeting. This summer's Youth Ag Leadership Foundation fundraiser BBQ is canceled and the youth who applied for the Youth Ag Leadership Foundation scholarships will hear back soon! Sarah Glashan will be the new Sonoma County CCC President!

Other Officer Reports:

- Healthy Living! This month Gracie Downs reminded us all to wear masks when in public and to wash our hands as much as we can! She also told us all out how May is Mental Health Awareness Month!
- Community Service Officer: Wyatt Gersley asked us all to reach out to seniors we know and love and try and talk to them, keep them company and help them with something they need.

Old Business: Chicken Que raised $25,000 for Sonoma County 4-H in only 3 hours! The radio special went well with all the interviews with members and adult volunteers! If you have not already please send your ticket checks to Michael Sittenauer as soon as possible! Our summer picnic will be pushed back until August, and our 4-H camp is cancelled for this summer. Refunds for the staff are being sent out. If you can please do a Record Book! If you do one our club will get money even if you do not win anything.

New Business:

Elections were held and the following will be our officers for the 2020- 2021 4-H year: Here are our Officer Election results!
